Friday Capital Cases

With increasing frequency, higher courts are affirming underlying convictions but overturning the death penalty and remanding for a new penalty phase. Such penalty re-trials are significantly different from complete capital trials in both preparation and presentation. This seminar will focus primarily on the special aspects of trying such remanded stand-alone penalty trials. The presenters will be experienced practitioners who have been involved in such re-trials. In addition, there will be focus on recent developments in capital litigation generally.
