2018 DUI and Motor Vehicle Law Summit

The best and highly-popular DUI and Motor Vehicle Law Summit presented by the Pennsylvania Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (PACDL) returns to The Hotel Hershey on February 23, 2018. Every year, our course planner identifies the hottest topics and the greatest DUI challenges facing Pennsylvania's criminal defense bar. PACDL's 2018 DUI and Motor Vehicle Law Summit promises to be the finest DUI and Motor Vehicle seminar in the Commonwealth because it is designed and built specifically for criminal defense lawyers.

You will learn from some of the most innovative, inspiring, and creative defense practitioners and experts in and outside of Pennsylvania who will readily share their insights. We recruit nationally renowned lawyers, so you will be assured of learning the latest tactics and strategies to optimize your success. Quite simply, this CLE is intended to deliver strong content that you can use in your everyday practice.

If you are considering adding DUI defense to your law firm portfolio or already have that practice and want to understand more about Birchfield or Pennsylvania's new ignition interlock law, this training gives you a sturdy foundation to achieve the most favorable results for your future motor vehicle clients and improve your representation before, during and after trial.

Don't miss the 2018 DUI and Motor Vehicle Law Summit to network and confer with your colleagues and establish a referral network across the Commonwealth. Register today!

Course Planner

Edward F. Spreha, Jr. is a partner in the Law Firm of Wagner and Spreha in Harrisburg. He joined his present law firm in 2002 and focuses on defending individuals accused of criminal conduct. Mr. Spreha is a member of the board of directors of PACDL and regularly lectures on motor vehicle matters.

Session Schedule

8:30 a.m. Registration and Continental Breakfast

8:55 a.m. Welcome and Announcements

9:00 a.m. Cross-Examination of the SFST Officers – Strategies and Tactics to Win. We all have heard repeatedly how our clients performed on the Standard Field Sobriety Tests in the pre-arrest stage of a DUI stop and had courts accept the results as infallible. This hour session will teach us how to attack these exercises and prove that they often aren't what the Commonwealth would like the fact finder to believe.
Presenter: Ben Sessions, The Sessions Law Firm, Atlanta, GA

10:30 a.m. Break

10:45 a.m. Get Up to Speed on Birchfield, Ignition Interlock and Related Updates. Get up to speed on the latest statutory and case law updates including the latest on Birchfield. Included in this hour is a special search and seizure update on challenging the vehicle stop and search based on an examination of the arresting officer's past vehicle stops. Learn how to obtain this information through the Right To Know and subpoena process.

Presenter: Ed Spreha, Law Offices of Wagner and Spreha, Harrisburg, and Jonathan R. White, Dethlefs-Pykosh Law Group, LLC, Camp Hill

11:45 p.m. Lunch (included in registration)

12:45 p.m. Cannabis & Cars. What is marijuana impairment, how do police determine marijuana impairment, what does a nanogram mean and what if I have a medical card?

Presenter: George L. Bianchi, Bellevue, WA

2:15 p.m. Break

2:30 p.m. Commonwealth v. Gause - Its Impact on DUI, Drugs and the DRE. Straight from the attorney who won this case before the Superior Court. Learn the potential far reaching aspects of this case as you challenge and exclude the DRE, ARIDE and lay officer opinion on the alleged, drug impaired client. While this case dealt primarily with eyelid tremors, you will learn how to apply this decision to almost all aspects of the Commonwealth's drug evaluation.

Presenter: Timothy M. Barrouk, The McShane Firm, Harrisburg

3:30 p.m. Break

3:45 p.m. Atticus Finch and the Uncommon Good: Navigating and Transcending Gray. Lawyers in the real world are constantly confronted with client problems that defy "happily ever after" endings, and are often reduced to seeking the best course to follow through a world that will necessarily remain imperfect. Lawyers are, however, also confronted with moments where the difficulty is not in finding the right path, but in choosing to take the right path even when it is clearly the more difficult one. Revisit Harper Lee's classic novel, To Kill a Mockingbird, to examine what advice Atticus Finch might offer to real life lawyers who seek both to navigate and transcend the gray they encounter in practice. Presenter: Greg Randall Lee, Widener University, Commonwealth Law School, Harrisburg

4:45 p.m. Adjournment
