

Cryptocurrency: Trash or Treasure?

Please join Blank Rome LLP and PACDL's White Collar Practice Committee for Cocktails and CLE

Cryptocurrency: Trash or Treasure?

Wednesday, October 10, 2018 • 5:30–8:00 p.m.
Philadelphia, PA

Blockchain technology is revolutionizing financial and commercial transactions globally. As blockchain applications and distributed ledger transactions gain prominence across the healthcare, energy, real estate, professional services, and life sciences industries, companies of all sizes will require guidance and insight on continually-evolving transactional, regulatory, and litigation-focused issues.

Please join us for an engaging and informative CLE – with cocktails following the program.

SEMINAR PANELISTS:

G. Jeffrey Boujoukos

Regional Director, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia Regional Office

Michelle Ann Gitlitz

Partner, Blank Rome LLP (New York)

Richard A. Levan

Levan Legal LLC

Moderator:Joseph G. Poluka

Partner, Blank Rome LLP (Philadelphia)

Session Topics:

- What is Blockchain?
- What is Cryptocurrency?
- What are ICOs/Token Offerings?
- The SEC's New Cyber Unit.
- Recent SEC Enforcement Actions.
- What are other Regulators Doing?

BLANKROME

Register online at:

www.pacdl.org

or call PACDL at 717.234.7403

CLE CREDIT: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for one hour of substantive law, practice, and procedure CLE credit.

Location:

Blank Rome LLP

One Logan Square
130 North 18th Street
11th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19103

Registration: 5:30–6:00 p.m.

CLE Program: 6:00–7:00 p.m.

Cocktails: 7:00–8:00 p.m.